

Operation Flash point Red River

Um jogo da code master =p

Greetings!

It's another glorious Monday morning and time for another Postcard from the Frontline, a feature where the developers working on Red River send in screen grabs straight from the game.

Today's image is taken by Mark Oxenham, one of our Programmers, and comes from the PC version of Red River. He captured a magnificent shot of Fireteam Bravo stopping briefly to admire one of Tajikistan's overwhelming vistas.

Take in the view Marines, it's a beautiful place for a war!

Como será que este ira sair ?

Pelo video ate parece porreiro. =p Se bem que sempre ha o call of dutty e o battle field, que sao mais conhecidos. Mas este tb aparenta ser excelente, uma ves que nao é muito falado.
